

PROJECT ISSUES

The specific transportation problems that affect the I-270 North corridor include:

1. Deteriorating pavement and bridges
2. Congestion on interstate
3. Congested interchanges
4. Poor outer road operations
5. Safety concerns
6. Lack of appropriate bike/pedestrian pathways
7. Difficulty in accessing important destinations for highway and transit users
8. Inability to accommodate increased freight movements